hendrik vogel (nugath; karlsruhe; ger) is coming from the jazzy & funky deep-house side. his dj sets are heavily influenced by his education and current work as a scenographer: he's an expert in arranging a stage on which moving stories are to be told ...and he's a gifted and very experienced narrator as well! this is the reason why new.com loved his mixes at once and consequently was eager to produce a radio show together with him. for the first time, our show happens on the fresh and exceptionally advanced surroundings of livebeats.com. this platform provides us prime time streaming and high resolved videotransmission as well as the opportunity to chat live and log in directly over facebook. welcome to "comfortnoise podcast" on livebeats! join & enjoy us!
