crazeebo (zürich) says from himself: "i'm too young for punk, too old for hip-hop and my trademark are broken beats." well, be sure that he made a few experiences as dj, engineer and producer, in zürich as well as in paris and london; working with giorgio moroder, europe, conny plank and stereo mc's. finally, we non-restrictively admire him for being the master of the one and only swiss vinyl-dubplatecutter. do you know what this means? we welcome a true and restless sound explorer that is showing us how he arrived in 2011. sane or insane: jugde yourself! somehow or other: 100% our taste!
